

DECLARATION OF REPAIR ATTEMPTS

**The information on this page is intended for general guidance only and is provided with the understanding that it does not constitute legal advice from Class Counsel.*

Legal declarations are about facts and, by definition, must be truthful and accurate to the best of your knowledge. You must sign the declaration to make it legally binding.

If you intend to file a claim for repurchase under your state's lemon law or for breach of warranty to demand a repair and your eligibility for benefits depends on attempts you made to repair your PowerShift Transmission, you must submit a declaration to the Arbitration Administration, together with your claim form, that describes those attempts in as much detail as possible.

Your explanation should focus on facts to the extent you can recall them, such as the approximate date of the attempt, your vehicle's approximate mileage at the time, to whom the attempt was made (e.g. the dealership where you tried to make a Service Visit or the customer service representative to whom you spoke), and the outcome of the attempt (e.g. the dealer refused to diagnose or service your vehicle). Any documents you have relating to these attempts, such as emails or receipts, should be identified by description (e.g. "Email sent on 11/17/17 to Ford Customer Service") and attached.
